Observations... Patrolmen Arrest Four Escaped Prisoners On Highway 90 Here Thursday

By the Editor

We want to take this opportunity to congratulate the Womens Auxiliary of the Waveland Fire Department for the splendid job they did in raising funds for the department at the recent benefit given for this purpose. The financial statement is published elsewhere in this issue of the paper, and it shows a net profit of $2155.00. Not bad for a Town the size of Waveland. It shows what cooperation will do and there hasn't been much time lost in buying added equipment. Now, all that Waveland needs is a good water system; and we understand that a survey is being presently made by engineers with that purpose in mind.

Sunday, April 22, is Tea Time Jubilee Day. The Ladies Auxiliary of the St. Stanislaus Band is giving the jubilee for the benefit of the Band. The affair will be held at St. Joseph Auditorium and will start at 3:00 P.M. It will be announced by a parade through the city, Saturday. Over 50 prizes will be given at the Jubilee Celebration. May be worth your while to attend, and at the same time you will be helping the boys of the band, who spend their recreation hours, practicing and who are always on hand to lend recognition and enjoyment to the other fellow. These youngsters are not selfish; so, let us be liberal towards them.

Joe Scharff, our genial Jitney-Jungle operator, is a member of the five man committee planning the 1951 model program for the twentieth annual Operators Association meeting, to be held at the Edgewater Gulf Hotel June 18-21. Joe was in Jackson attending a committee meeting on April 3, and the Jitney-Jungle paper "Smiles" commends their work highly, stating that an outstanding job is being done by this group in making the get-together a Jitney-Jungle owner-manager conference in every sense of the word. The other members of the committee are A. N. Brannon, Jackson, Mississippi; Fred Taylor, Enterprise, Alabama; W. C. Murrian, Farmersville, Louisiana; and Wilbur Atkinson, Demopolis, Alabama.

Bay St. Louis has a Park Commission, and the Commission will have some money at its disposal to do some of the things so necessary for the entertainment and amusement of the people of this lovely little city and its visitors. Under the auspices of the commission, we understand that sand beaches and public piers come under the jurisdiction of the Commissioners. There is much which can be done; and we are certain that the members of the Park Commission, who are outstanding civic workers, will really get the ball rolling.

We have a letter from Dr. C. M. Shipp, County Health Officer, and we also have some mosquito news, as he entitled it, from Howard Lettissier, President of the Chamber of Commerce, about the use of the fogging machine for the control of the present influx of mosquitoes. We are going to publish the good doctor's letter, and also tell you that Howard and the Doctor are in thorough accord. So, we hope everybody will be happy, even though they are a little burned up from the constant pecking of the little devils.

April 18, 1951
Mr. A. G. Favre, Editor,
Sea Coast Echo
Bay Saint Louis, Mississippi

Dear Editor:
Many requests come to the Health Department in regard to the immediate use of the fogging machine for the control of our present influx of mosquitoes. I am sure that the good people in Bay Saint Louis would not make these requests and demands if they knew the facts in regard to this program.
The D. D. T. concentrate used in the spray has been furnished through your Health Department. In February, this year, we made a request for 1000 pounds of D. D. T. concentrate with the understanding that our city trucks would pick up this freight at the Hattiesburg depot. Later we were notified that this concentrate was a critical material and due to the defense program no D. D. T. would be available to the municipalities through the Public Health Service.
We have on hand at present 400 pounds left over from last year's consignment and no prospect of obtaining more from any source. If we go ahead and use the little we have on hand, left over from last year, we will not be able to do any fogging in mid-summer when we will need it most.
Kindly mention these facts in your well read column so that all of us will understand the situation.

Sincerely yours,
C. M. SHIPP, M. D. Director

M. D. Rutherford To Run For J. P.

We are authorized to announce the candidacy of M. D. (Pat) Rutherford for Justice of the Peace, Beat 5, Hancock County, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary Election to be held August 7, 1951.

To the Qualified Electors of Beat Five, Hancock County, Mississippi

Four years ago it was my privilege to be elected Justice of the Peace for Beat No. 5, Hancock County. With this experience, I feel that I am better qualified to serve you and ask for your support.

It has been my purpose to try all cases that come before me fairly and honestly, and it is my conviction that this has been done. I have tried to temper mercy with justice in all cases that I felt that this should be done, playing no favorites, regardless of race, color or creed.

Upon the record that I have made as Justice of the Peace, I now stand, in asking your vote and support. If elected, I shall follow in the future the same course that I have followed in the past.

Respectfully,
M. D. (PAT) RUTHERFORD

SAM L. FAVRE JR., TO MAKE THE RACE FOR CLERK OF COURTS

We are authorized to announce the candidacy of Sam L. Favre Jr. for Clerk of Courts, Hancock County, Mississippi, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary Election to be held August 7, 1951.

To the Voters of Hancock County

I take this as a means of announcing my candidacy for the office of Clerk of the Chancery and Circuit Courts of Hancock County.

Having been solicited by many friends throughout the county and after having given the matter much consideration, I have decided to become a candidate for this important office. As many of you will recall, four years ago I was a candidate for the same office; although there were several candidates for this office who had long political careers, I made the second primary and received a splendid vote.

As to my previous experience, I held the office of county Superintendent of Education for the 1944-1948 term. During my administration as County Superintendent, I was faced with some very serious problems, some of which were: (1) The teacher shortage; (2) A shortage of transportation equipment; (3) Inflation, which affected lunchrooms and transportation equipment. However, in spite of these and problems connected with school finance, my administration was successful and efficient.

I wish to point out that, at the time I took office many of the schools were in debt and the County Common School fund was depleted. While I served as County Superintendent, every school was brought out of debt and put on a strictly cash basis. Every teacher and bus driver was paid on time; and teachers salaries went to the highest level ever reached in this

$700 QUOTA

The quota for 1951 is $700; last year the citizens of the community donated, generously to this worthy cause, and the quota was met. They are asked to contribute liberally this year so that funds may be created for continued study and research in the field of this dread disease.

Mayor Warren Carver, campaign chairman, announced that Friday, April 27, will be Coffee Day in Bay St. Louis. On this day, restaurants and business houses donate the money collected from the sale of coffee to the drive.

PARTICIPATE IN COFFEE DAY
Business houses participating in Coffee Day are Wilmer's Grocery, Scharff's Jitney-Jungle, Coast Electric Power Association, Manier's Restaurant, Tra-pant's and Sunshine Ice Cream Parlor.

The funds collected in this community are sent to the American Cancer Society, and a portion of the collections are returned to the local organization to maintain in a special fund.

county, up to that time. When my term expired, the common school fund had a very substantial surplus. Throughout my entire term, the state auditors found my office in good shape; and all funds that I controlled were properly used and completely accounted for.

As County Superintendent some of the things I promoted were as follows: A summer school for teachers in this county; a teachers' wage scale based on qualifications and experience; an equitable distribution of text books; a better lunchroom program; and a thorough inspection of school transportation equipment.

Before I served as County Superintendent I received the degree of Bachelor of Science in Business from Mississippi State College. After my term expired, I went to the University of Mississippi and last year acquired the degree of Bachelor of Laws. Since that time I have been a practicing attorney in Hancock County, having my office in the City of Bay St. Louis. I would like to state that I worked my way through Pearl River Jr. College, Mississippi State College, and the University of Mississippi; and that no part of my college training was financed by any one other than myself.

Considering the fact that the County's financial matters are handled in the Clerk's office through the Board of Supervisors; and the fact that court records and legal documents are handled there, I submit that if there is any place in the county affairs where a business background and legal training are of utmost importance, it is in the office of the Clerk of Courts.

In conclusion, let me enumerate the things I stand for, namely: A progressive school system; the construction of better roads; the reduction of the bonded indebtedness of this County; and courteous, honest, and efficient service. I would also like to emphasize the fact that I have never been controlled by any political faction. I am strictly an "INDEPENDENT" candidate and intend to stay that way. I sincerely ask that you consider my qualifications and experience in casting your vote in the Democratic Primaries.

Respectfully submitted,
SAM L. FAVRE, JR.
Candidate for Clerk of Courts

George S. Horton, Sam Whitfield, Mrs. Mae Tudary, Mrs. Caroline Kiefer and Alden Mauffray, have been named members of the Park Commission for the City of Bay St. Louis, by the Mayor and Commission Council. The terms are stepped from one to five years, and the terms of the respective members will expire in the order in which they are listed above. Mr. Horton's term being for one year, and Mr. Mauffray having been appointed for the five year term.

Under the statute the Commissioners have control of all parks, playgrounds and swimming pools maintained and established in the municipality. This authority would also include any sand beaches and public piers. The Commissioners would have the right to hire and fire all help necessary to the maintenance of the parks, etc., and would establish the wages to be paid to all help hired by them. They would establish the amount of charges if any to be collected for the use of the various objects under their direction, and for the use of any amusement device that may be installed; and they would also control the leasing of concessions or privileges for the sale of cold drinks, etc.; they shall make quarterly reports to the Commission Council, and annually shall make a detailed statement covering their entire operation.

They shall have full jurisdiction and control all funds coming into their possession either by appropriation from the city Council by gift or from revenue derived from the operations.

They shall establish all rules and regulations as they may deem necessary for the safe, economic and efficient management of such parks, etc. They have the authority to purchase parks and playground equipment, and they have authority to extend any recreational facility for the wholesome and healthful recreation of all citizens of the municipality.

The Mayor and Commission Council at the time of the creation of the Park Commission, also levied a two mill tax for the support of the Commission in this work; this tax has been collected, and funds are presently available for the start of the program.

SSC Band Wins Honors In Jackson

Brother Romuald, Director of the St. Stanislaus Band, upon his return from Jackson Friday, stated, "I am well pleased with the showing the band made in its entries in the State Contest. Considering that one-third of the members of this year's band are newcomers, the winning of five Superior is an achievement which the students of the band and the school should be proud of." Superior is the highest rating that can be awarded to a contestant. It represents an average of 95-100 per cent.

Four prisoners, escapees from the Harrison County Jail, were apprehended Thursday night in Bay St. Louis less than two hours after they overpowered a jailer, threatened to shoot him and a trusty if they sounded an alarm, and escaped.

Following their escape, they entered a Gulfport residence, forced a father and his daughter, at pistol point, to turn over the keys to an automobile, ripped the line from the telephone receiver and fled Westward on U. S. Highway 90, only to be recaptured by the Mississippi State highway patrol here.

Mrs. Commander died at Kings Daughters hospital, April 3 after she had given police a written statement that her husband beat her with his fists, although she had been sick for many months.

F. Z. Goss Jr., To Make Race For Supervisor

We are authorized to announce the candidacy of Forest Z. Goss, Jr., for Supervisor, Beat 4, Hancock County, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary Election to be held August 7, 1951.

To the People of Beat 4 Hancock County, Mississippi

After much consideration, I have decided to make the race for Board of Supervisor of Beat 4, Hancock County.

I am a son of Dr. F. Z. Goss, and I was born and reared in Hancock County. I am married and my wife and I have been blessed with one child.

If you, the voters of Beat 4 will honor me with the office of Board of Supervisor, I will give you an honest and serviceable administration. I assure you I will keep the roads and bridges in good condition at the least possible cost.

I am interested in the completion of black topping the Kiln and Pecayune road from the Pearl River County line to the Harrison County line.

This is the first time I have ever offered myself for public office, and if you will give me the opportunity, I will make you a competent Supervisor.

I hope to see each and every one of you before the election and discuss the matter with you.

Respectfully,
FOREST Z. GOSS, JR.

Egloff Announces For Constable

We are authorized to announce the candidacy of Paul Egloff for the office of Constable, Beat 5, Hancock County, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary Election to be held August 7, 1951.

To the Qualified Voters of Beat Five, Hancock County, Mississippi

I am for the first time, seeking to be elected to a public office. I am submitting myself to the voters of Beat 5 as a candidate for Constable. I have been a deputy sheriff under four sheriffs, and have served them to the best of my ability. I have also served on the police force of the City of Bay St. Louis, and am at present the Chief outside deputy, for the present Sheriff.

I am a native of Bay St. Louis, having been born and reared here. I attended St. Stanislaus Day School, better known as "Rip's University," and also St. Stanislaus College.

I feel as though my experience has more than qualified me for the position of Constable, to which I seek to be elected. If elected, I promise to serve faithfully and impartially, and will be on call twenty-four hours a day, seven days a week.

I therefore submit myself to the voters of Beat 5, for their consideration.

Respectfully,

To the Voters of Beat Four, Hancock County, Mississippi

I wish to announce to my many friends in Beat Four, Hancock County that I shall be a candidate for the office of Supervisor in the Democratic Primary Election to be held on August 7th, of this year. In announcing my candidacy I am not unmindful of the many duties and responsibilities of a Supervisor, having served my beat for three terms in this important office.

I feel that one of the most important problems of rural Hancock County is, good roads, and curing my previous terms I lent every effort to improve the roads in my beat, in fact, I am the only man who served as Supervisor in Beat 4, who ever surfaced or black topped any of its roads. These roads are today in use with very little maintenance cost.

I promise, if elected, to do all within my power to rebuild and black top the Kiln-Fenton Road, to the Harrison County Line, and

What Has Happened To The Bridge?

What has happened to the bridge which was supposed to be built across the Bay of St. Louis? Apparently the State Highway Commission has forgotten that they have a mandate from the Legislature to erect "a colossal monument to political indifference" connecting Hancock and Harrison Counties. We are now, and have always, opposed the erection of a toll bridge; but it has reached a point where something must be done. We must either have a new bridge, be it toll or not, or the old structure must be repaired and made safe for traffic.

The members of the Highway Commission are seemingly juggling the location of the bridge, and we thought perhaps this was the main cog in the wheel; but now we are wondering if it is. Certainly they have had ample time to study the matter, both as to location and from an engineering point of view, and by this time they should have been able to make up their minds and quit pussyfooting around.

As we understand it, the matter of the issuance of the bonds for the building of the bridge is all set, and they are ready for sale; but that appears to be the only matter which has been attended to. Options on right of way have been obtained on practically all of the property on the present route, and a representative of the commission has been in town to secure options on the north route. The options on the present route will expire May 1, and if these are allowed to expire; and an attempt is made to later secure other options, folks are going to begin to think the whole matter is a joke.

It is about time for the commission to make up its mind and quit taunting us. They should realize they have kicked us in the teeth long enough; and throughout the years, have allocated funds from enormous bond issues, never giving the Gulf Coast a single solitary thought.

It is about time for them to realize that they are not paying the bill for the new bridge; that the users are the ones who will foot it, and they should at least attempt to carry out the directive of the Legislature, which bill was passed more than a year ago.

We are told it will take more than two years to erect the new bridge, and with material shortages perhaps longer. With the condition of the old bridge growing worse, day by day, it would not surprise us to see it collapse and probably cause the death of some unsuspecting human beings. Then, upon whose shoulders will rest the responsibility—THE MEMBERS OF THE HIGHWAY COMMISSION.

Hoffman - Elliott Wedding Held

A wedding of interest in Bay St. Louis and New Orleans was that of Miss Joan Eugenie Elliott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Elliott of this city, and Raymond Girard Hoffman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene John Hoffman, Sr. of New Orleans.

The wedding was solemnized with a nuptial Mass at Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church at 10:00 a. m. Saturday, April 14, by Right Reverend Monsignor A. J. Gmelch.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a candlelight satin gown, made with a form fitting bodice and a portrait neckline which was trimmed with applique lace and seed pearls. The sleeves, which ended in a point at the hands, were trimmed in the lace and pearls. The full skirt fell into a graceful train, and her fingertip veil of illusion was held in place by a halo of lace and seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses and a white orchid.

The maid of honor, Miss Julie Elliott, wore an off the shoulder gown of sea green satin, made with a form fitting bodice and a full floor length skirt. She wore a Juliet cap of the same material and carried a fan-shaped bouquet of iris and spring flowers.

The bridesmaids were her other three sisters, Mrs. A. L. Enterante, who wore pink, Mrs. Dan B. Hargerty, yellow, and Mrs. Howard J. Duff, aqua; Diane Enterante, niece of the bride, who was junior bridesmaid, wore lavender satin. Their dresses were similar to that of the maid of honor, and all carried fan-shaped bouquets of spring flowers.

The groom had as his best man, his brother, Eugene J. Hoffman, Jr.; groomsmen were Harry Sullivan, Lou Montague, Herbert Keller and Earl Wilkins, Jr. Ushers were Earl Roth, Russell Elliott and Anthony Enterante, Jr.

Professor Hammersbach played the traditional "Bridal Chorus" by Lohengrin, and Sgt. Howard J. Duff sang Franz Schubert's "Ave Maria" and the hymn, "O Lord, I Am Not Worthy."

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the sun parlor of the Hotel Red. The bride's table, covered with a Madeira cloth, held a five-tiered wedding cake.

In the receiving line were the bride and groom's mother and the bride's aunt, Mrs. J. Hartman Thompson.

For traveling the bride chose a dusty rose light wool suit with a dark blue hat trimmed with rose buds of the dusty rose shade. She wore dark blue accessories and a white orchid corsage.

The bride, a graduate of St. Joseph Academy, is employed as comptroller operator at the California Oil Company in New Orleans. Mr. Hoffman is associated with his brother at the Hoffman Oil Station in New Orleans. Upon their return the couple will make their home in New Orleans.

Contest because it is the judges' expression that this band has demonstrated the best conceivable performance for the class of participants being judged; that it is a fine performing musical organization; and it is worthy of the distinction of being recognized as a "first place winner." This is the reason why the St. Stanislaus Band is proud of the fine showing it made in Concert Competition. It was with this objective in mind that the members of the Band worked hard the whole year to develop fine musicianship.

Following is a complete listing of the ratings received.

EXCELLENT: Marching Ma-neuvers; Signal Drum, Major, Henry Capdepon; Bass Solo, James Williams.

GOOD: Sightreading; Cornet Trio, Sam D'Angelo, Gerald Kimble, David Treutel; Cornet Solo, Gerald Kimble.

MAKE PASTURE TOUR FRIDAY

The annual County Pasture Tour, sponsored by the Hancock County Coordinating Council, an organization made up of the agricultural workers of Hancock County, was held Friday afternoon, April 13, beginning at 1:00 o'clock.

The first farm visited was that of George Dewey Bounds in the Flat Top Community. Here the party saw 22 acres planted in fescue and white Dutch. This pasture was begun by Mr. Bounds, who died before the work was completed, and is now operated by his son, Paul. Paul stated that the 22 acres cost approximately $40.00 to $45.00 per acre to put in improved pasture. He further stated that he began grazing this fescue and white Dutch February 28 and has grazed continuously since.

The financing for this project was done through C. Burrill, Administrator for the Farmers Home Administration. In commenting on the pasture program in Hancock County, Mr. Burrill stated that his organization financed 542 acres in improved pastures. He added that the Farmers Home Administration financed more acres in new improved pastures in Hancock County than in any other county in Mississippi.

The total acreage in Hancock County in improved pastures was over 1500 acres this winter and spring.

The second stop was Clark Lee's farm in the Leetown community. He had six acres planted in reseeded crimson clover and bahia grass. Also twelve acres in white Dutch and Dallas grass. Mr. Lee stated that he planted his pasture the last of September, and used one ton of lime per acre, 400 pounds of phosphate, 200 pounds of potash, and top dressed with 300 pounds of 6-8-8 about March 1. He began grazing February 15 and grazed until April 5.

Mr. Lee who is milking 16 cows, grazed the entire herd of 26 on this project. This is his first year on the improved pasture program, and he stated "When I began grazing my cattle, I cut my feed bill 50%."

The tour continued to the Herbert Brown farm in the Catahoula community where the group saw 50 head of beef type cattle grazing on 34 acres of reseeded crimson clover. "Even though I am in the feed business, I have used only ten sacks this winter on all these cattle," Mr. Brown stated.

In this 34 acre tract, he has reseeded crimson clover planted; four acres of this are interplanted with white Dutch. He also has another six acres planted with sericea lespedeza. Mr. Bishop, Soil Conservation Service Technician, pointed out that through these various interplantings, Mr. Brown has year round grazing. As an example, when the crimson reaches maturity around the first of May in this area, his sericea will furnish grazing.

The next stop was at Dealus Cuevas in Cuevas' community to see ten acres in reseeded crimson clover. "This ten acres is planted on good, well drained red bay soil which is the best type soil in this county for reseeded crimson clover," Mr. Bishop told those present. In this instance, when the reseeded crimson reaches maturity a good bermuda carpet sod will come through to furnish grazing until frost.

The fifth pasture on the tour was the H. C. Voorhies farm, in the Cuevastown community, which is operated by Horace Necaise. This farm had 22 acres in undrained idle land which was bringing in no revenue. In the spring of 1950, 1400 feet of ditches were blown, the stumps pushed, land prepared for fertilization and seed; this was all completed by fall. On the low wet land, which consisted of approximately half of the area, fescue was planted with a mixture of white Dutch and ladino clover. On the upper part reseeded crimson clover and bahia grass were planted. These plantings were done around the middle of November. Mr. Necaise began grazing. My feed bill was cut in half, and when I took the cattle off to let the clover go to seed, my milk production dropped one half," Mr. Necaise said. He plans to sell some cull cows and get steers to take care of some of the pasture.

The next stop was the Joseph Ladner farm in the Necaise Crossing community. In the fall of 1949 Mr. Ladner planted ten acres in a combination of white Dutch and dallas grass and reseeded crimson clover, putting approximately half in white Dutch and dallas grass and the remainder to reseeded crimson. He got such good results that he decided to plant more improved pasture. Those making the tour saw ten acres planted in the fall of 1950 in reseeded crimson clover and bahia grass and three acres in Kentucky Fescue with white Dutch. Mr. Ladner has grazed approximately sixty head of sheep, ten head of hogs and about 17 head of young cattle continuously on his improved pasture.

The last stop was Rosa Shaw's farm in Crane Creek community. Mr. Shaw planted 14 acres of reseeded crimson clover with bahia grass about November 1; he began to graze this February 15, and during the grazing period, until April 11, grazed 22 head of cows and calves continuously.

This land was in inferior hard wood timber, bringing in no income. During the summer of 1950, Mr. Shaw decided to put this in improved pasture, and the land clearing was begun in August and September. He interplanted bahia grass which, after the reseeded crimson clover matures in May, will give summer grazing until killed by frost in the late fall. That will give Mr. Shaw practically year round grazing on the same land. Otho Rester, Fitzhugh Lee and Ford Smith, Soil Conservation District Commissioners for Hancock County, James Bishop, S. C. S. Technician, Charles Burrill, Farmers Home Administration, and Howard F. Simmons, County Agricultural Agent, were among those making the entire trip.

COUNTY AGENT'S NOTES

By HOWARD SIMMONS

The first step to good live-stock management is plenty of feed the year round. Pasture for cattle and sheep and corn for hogs.

Grass and roughage make up about 90 percent of the feed for cattle and sheep in this area. It is necessary for these animals to have roughage in the winter as well as in the rest of the year, so plan now to put up plenty of hay and silage.

An increase in corn production will enable farmers to get more finished hogs on the market and more steers to the feed lots.

PIG MANAGEMENT

Pastures reduce the amount of high priced protein, vitamins and minerals needed in rations for fattening and breeding hogs and small pigs.

Rotate your pastures to help keep down worm infestation. Plow grazing areas under once a year to destroy roundworm eggs. Move weaned pigs to new pasture areas. Move dry sows to permanent pasture and breed for next litter. Treat young pigs for roundworms.

Ladino clover is one of the best legumes for growing pigs. One acre will handle 10 to 25 head if on full grain feed; 15 to 20 if on limited grain feed.

VEAL AND CALF GRADES

Changes in standard grades of calf and veal carcasses combine the present Choice and Prime grades under the name Prime; rename Good as Choice; establish new Good grade from top half of Commercial grade; continue the remainder of the Commercial grade as Commercial; and leave the present Utility and Cull grades unchanged.

Change in the grades for slaughter (live) vealers and calves coincide with the changes in carcass grades. Choice and Prime are grouped under the name Prime; Good is renamed as Choice; a new grade is established from the top half of the medium grade; the remainder of the medium grade are renamed as Commercial; Common grade renamed as Utility; and the Cull grade is unchanged.

Paint the naval of a new barn calf with tincture of iodine. Clean the udder, and teats of cow with a chlorine solution before letting the new calf nurse. Make sure the calf gets the first milk from the cow.

Keep calves in individual pens until they are two and a half to three months old. This will eliminate the sucking of each other's udder which causes blind quarters on first calf heifers and may cause ill-shaped teats.

When calves are from 4 to 15 months old, treat for stomach worms before turning them to pasture.

Breed Jersey heifers when they weigh from 500 to 525 pounds, regardless of age.

Do not graze pastures too heavily in the early spring; leave some grazing for later. Put up plenty of hay and silage.

REMEMBER!

You are asked to keep the Rummage Sale, to be sponsored by the Guild of Christ Episcopal Church, in mind and if you have anything to contribute in the way of used articles, clothes, etc., donate them. The place for holding the sale has not been decided, but the date is May 11 and 12.

WMS MEETS

Mrs. Kenneth Whitfield, program chairman for the Women's Missionary Society of the First Baptist church, opened the meeting with prayer last Tuesday afternoon at the church.

Mrs. R. L. Lee who, with Mrs. A. H. Gregory, was a delegate to the state convention of the WMS held in Jackson, March 20-22, gave a report on the convention program. In closing her report, Mrs. Lee said that a pleasant feature of the program was the optimistic outlook, evident of the returned missionaries from foreign fields, many of whom were forced back because of war conditions. Mrs. Lee said that each one who spoke voiced the fact, that in the face of all the opposition Christianity is meeting, the voice of Jesus is heard; and that the light of Jesus is sufficient to light the way for Christianity.

Mrs. Wilbur Sledge presided over the state meeting which had for its theme, "Ye Shall be My Witnesses." Miss Almarine Brown succeeds Mrs. Sledge as president for the ensuing year. This, the seventy-second convention, showed the greatest increase in membership in its existence.

Mrs. Nelson Named Coast Auxiliary V. P.

The Bay St. Louis Unit 139 of the American Legion Auxiliary met Monday evening, April 9, at the Legion home with Mrs. Sidney Bourgeois as hostess.

Following the business session, at which plans for the annual Poppy Sale were discussed, the meeting was turned over to Mrs. Clara Holliday, district president, who outlined the work to be done in the new year and reviewed the work done in the year about to close.

Mrs. Bourgeois served refreshments, and a get-together meeting was held.

STOREHOUSE FOR TOMORROW

Within the cones and husks of our mature trees are the seeds for forests that will supply wood to future generations of Americans. In these natural storehouses, our forests have their beginning and their perpetuation.

However these seeds may be planted—while nature will sow most of them, some will germinate in scientifically operated nurseries—they will become vigorously growing young trees producing new wood for our many requirements.

Nature provides the seeds for our new forests, but much of the responsibility for growth and protection of the young trees rests with humans. If our growing timber is to reach maturity, fires must be kept out of the woods. Proper management of our woodlands will produce high-quality trees. The young seedlings will grow faster if their future is planned with good forest practices.

Trees are a crop, planted with the seeds from nature's storehouse. The forest industries, which depend on wood, are planning continuous production of trees, and encouraging all woods owners of America to do the same.

HOME AGENT'S NOTES

PLAN PROPER STORAGE SPACE

By MISS MADGE ALLRED

Are you going to have enough storage space for all the foods you plan to preserve this summer? You'll need space for canned goods, kraut, vinegar, pickles, cured meats and lard, as well as fruits and peaches, pears and grapes you store for ripening.

Best food storage space is cool, dry, ventilated and frost proof. It should be where you can get to it quickly and easily from the back of the house and from the kitchen. If you do your canning outside the kitchen, the storage room should be easy to get to from this work center also.

A food storage room should be well insulated. Openings at the top and bottom of the room may provide ventilation. If the room has a window, it should have an opaque shade.

You can use the available space best if the shelves are movable and adjustable. The slot for the bottom shelf should be 9 inches from the floor. Put slots at 3-inch intervals above this shelf, with the highest shelf not more than 72 inches from the floor.

The best way to store fruit jars and tin cans is two rows to the shelf, bottles and small jelly glasses three rows to the shelf, and tin cans stacked two deep on two rows to the shelf. Large stone jars and other heavy articles should be stored on slatted platforms set on 2-by-4-inch pieces of casters.

Use 12-inch boards for shelves for small containers. For containers as cracks or flat pans, 18 inches is a good width for shelves and platforms.

In estimating the amount of shelving you will need to store the foods on, your 1951 Ford budget, allow 19 feet for 100 pint and quart glass jars, stored two rows to the shelf. Allow 9 feet for 100 pint glass bottles, stored three rows to the shelf.

BISCUIT MIX

You see prepared mixes on the grocery shelves for cakes, breads, pastry and other foods. There are recipes available by which you can prepare such mixes at home. Here's one for making a biscuit mix that also makes good muffins, waffles, and pancakes.

To make the mix you will need: 8 cups sifted enriched white flour, 1 1/2 cup baking powder, 1 cup hydrogenated fat (pure lard becomes rancid when stored), 1 cup dried milk (whole or nonfat) and 1 tablespoon salt.

To make the mix, sift dry ingredients together 3 times. Cut in fat until about the size of a pea. Lift mix lightly into glass jars or tin cans without packing. Close tightly and store on the pantry shelf. No refrigeration is needed.

To make 6 medium-size biscuits, measure 1 cup of mix and add enough water or fluid milk to make a soft dough. It will take about 1 1/3 of water or milk, according to the kind of flour used and room temperature.

Turn the dough into a lightly floured board and knead a few times. Pat or roll out to about 1/2 inch thickness. Cut with floured cutter. Place on greased baking sheet. Bake in hot oven 450 degrees Fahrenheit for 12 to 15 minutes.

You will need to add a beaten egg to 1 1/2 cups of the mix, plus 1/2 cup water or milk to make six muffins; a beaten egg and 3/4 cup water or milk to 1 cup of mix to make 2 large waffles; and an egg and 2/3 cup water or milk to 1 cup of mix to make 7 medium-size pancakes.

WESTON, LEVY AND JONES ATTEND LONGLEAF GROUP MEET

Reviewing the history and status of sixteenth section school lands Friday night before the Longleaf Group of the Mississippi Chapter, Society of American Foresters, Luther Davis of Hattiesburg declared: "Mississippi has held title to more sixteenth section lands than any other state, but I cannot say that her handling of these lands has been in the best public interest. If any group is to be singled out for blame, it is the educators who thus far have failed, or neglected, to see the possibilities of support for the educational system from proper management of these lands: to date no adequate program has been outlined and no audible voice raised for improvement of management practices on sixteenth section lands."

Mississippi has, altogether over 820,000 acres, mostly of public domain origin, classed as school land. But of this area some 173,000 acres, known as the Chickasaw Section, are lieg lands located in Delta Counties and subject to the renewal of leases in perpetuity hence, beyond the pale of State control. There are some 650,000 acres, mostly in southern Mississippi counties, to which the State has clear title. Altogether there are 63 counties in Mississippi with school lands.

"Over 500,000 acres of sixteenth section land is classed as forest," Mr. Davis stated. "For the most part, sound management of these lands would result in substantial revenue which is possible only through adoption of good forestry practices on these lands."

Present revenues from leases of products, etc., return as little as 3 cents per acre per year; in a few exceptional instances returns have been as high as $35 per acre per year. Under good management of these lands, annual revenues could exceed $20,000,000; this would be enough to make secondary schools in many counties practically self-supporting, provided proper legislation would be enacted to provide annual flow of revenue to the schools from this source," Dr. Davis added.

Under the present so-called "free-range" economy of South Mississippi, many of the sixteenth sections are frequently burned for improvement of grazing by livestock owners who pay no taxes to the State either for the land or the cattle. Trespass is common occurrence. Timber sales are inadequately advertised, as is renewal of leases. These and various other factors result in return of only a fraction of the revenue that these lands, even in their present bent-up state, are capable of earning. The Boards of Supervisors of the counties within which school lands are located, under the present law, are charged with the administration of these lands and hold the keys to improvement of management practices on such lands, it was pointed out. But educators must shoulder much of the blame because their apathy and lack of vision have made it possible for these deplorable practices to continue.

Mr. Davis based his talk on a study which he had made over a period of 18 months during which he personally visited over 50 counties in Mississippi to examine the status and records of school lands. The results of this study are reported in a Master's thesis processed by and available from the Mississippi Southern College, at Hattiesburg.

Dr. Davis' talk concluded a half-day program of the Longleaf Group, beginning with a field trip on International Paper Company lands, arranged by L. E. Dantzier of Pascagoula. The evening meeting was held at Friendship House on Highway 90; D. E. Lauderburn, chairman of the Longleaf Group presided. The evening program arrangements were under a committee composed of David Bruce, chairman, and T. E. Maki and Douglas Post. Out-of-town visitors and members included James Hobb, Greensboro, North Carolina; Wheeler Bryant, Paul Henzler, William Shetter, Matt Boykin, John White, D. E. Lauderburn, Hattiesburg; Shirley Batson, J. E. Bryan and Don MacArthur, Wiggins; G. R. Erambert and W. B. Deaton, Brooklyn, Randle Dedeaux and William Mauldin, Perkinston; E. F. Lee, Picayune; Roland Weston, A. C. Levy, and Robert Jones, Bay St. Louis; Robert Allen and George Harvey, Success; D. E. McKay, Jerry Netterville, Mike Stalmuke and L. E. Dantzier of Pascagoula.

Traffic accidents since 1900 have killed almost twice as many Americans as have been killed in action or died of wounds in all the Nation's wars, according to Safety Officials.

Most of the accident death toll is made up of one or two death accidents, says Safety Council Officials. Only three catastrophes in 1950 caused more than 50 deaths each—the November wind and snow storm in the Northeastern states, the collision of two suburban trains in New York and the crash of a scheduled aid transport plane into Lake Michigan.

...so some gentlemen wore dirty shirts!

During California's Gold Rush, a clean shirt was worth its weight in gold. Forty-niners gladly paid $1.50 to have a shirt washed... and waited four weeks for delivery!

Nowadays, you can wash two tubfuls of shirts — or anything else — for one penny. And in minutes! Easier wash-days are just one of the many benefits of electric living.

Think about it for a moment. How many jobs has electricity helped you with during the past 24 hours? How many comforts, conveniences and pleasures has it made possible? And yet your electric service is the biggest bargain in the average family budget.

Its cost? Less than a pack of cigarettes a day!

Helping the Nation

get things done

for 75 years

This year is the telephone's seventy-fifth and busiest birthday.

What began as a line between two rooms in a Boston attic in 1876 has developed, in one lifetime, into a Long Distance network that covers the Nation — and extends to most of the world's telephones. This great system has grown in answer to the needs of a people. And it's a good thing it has. In these threatening times, the Long Distance lines that bind this country together are more vital than ever. For today they are helping to speed production and guard the Nation's security — jobs that call for nothing less than the best telephone service in the world. — Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company.

To help speed your Long Distance call, please give the operator the out-of-town telephone number. Telephone lines are busy with national defense.

MRS. MALCOLM B. GREEN

Mr. and Mrs. George M. Carnes of New Orleans and Ansley have named their farm home, "Gunston."

There is an historical meaning of this name as it is derived from "Gunston Hall," near Mount Vernon, Virginia. Millon Stoufflet and his crew are to be commended for the way they ploughed a furrow to keep the fire from spreading. Others who received the thanks of Mr. and Mrs. Moran were

FINANCIAL STATEMENT OF
WAVELAND FIRE DEPARTMENT AUXILIARY

The Women's Auxiliary of the Waveland Volunteer Fire Department wish to thank the countless people without whose help they would not be able to publish with justifiable pride the following financial report:

RECEIPTS
Cash Donations $ 875.50
Tickets to benefit 4/7/51 355.00
Other income from benefit 1834.30

$3,064.80

Less Expenditures 909.40
Net Profit 2155.40
Less purchase of 2 ton truck for the WVFD 1225.00

Cash on Hand $ 930.40

EXPENDITURES
Food, Drinks, Cig. $675.54
Decorations 21.45
Orchestra 55.00
Lumber for Booths 52.80
Tax on Tickets 56.80
Miscellaneous 47.81

Total Expenditures $909.40
Of this $930.40 about $900.00 will be spent to mount a 500 gallon water tank on the truck. This work will be done under the supervision of Mr. Richard Noonan, mechanic of the WVFD. The approximate $300.00 remaining is to be applied toward the purchase of a fire pump also to be mounted on the truck thus giving the town of Waveland the service of two equipped trucks. It should be pointed out that in order to make the job complete additional hose will be needed for the second truck.
